

Questions - The Shroud,

- 1) How would you describe the personality of the Shroud?
- 2) If you can remember, although sharing similar origins, how did the Shroud differ from the Robe?
- 3) The Shroud was created from what many take to be weeds, common flax. Does that resonate with you?
- 4) With such common beginnings, were the Shroud's high expectations and grandiose dreams realistic?
- 5) The shroud seems to have had a more personal, more intimate, more prolonged contact with Jesus than any of the other Witnesses so far. Does the intensity of that experience bring about a greater transformation than the other Witnesses?
- 6) Initially, the Shroud's future looked very bleak. Boring! Literally, at 'a dead end,' with no future whatsoever. It's thoughts about making a valuable contribution, nothing more than a dream!
 - a) Was the Shroud's role really so insignificant?
 - b) How great a Witness is the Shroud?
- 7) What lesson is there here for us?
